01. INTRODUCTION

We're looking for new trustees to help us achieve our vision of a more vibrant democracy, with people at the heart of decision-making.

We are committed to equal opportunities and we want our board to benefit from the advantages that diversity brings, including different skills, life experiences and backgrounds.

With that in mind, in this round of trustee recruitment we particularly welcome applications from people:

- From ethnic minorities;
- With a conservative worldview; and/or,
- From Northern Ireland, Scotland and Wales.

If you care about democracy and involving people in the decisions that affect their lives, then this could be the role for you!

02. WHO WE ARE

We're the UK's public participation charity. We work towards creating a more vibrant democracy, with people at the heart of decision-making.

Our mission is to develop, support and campaign for new ways of involving people in the decisions that affect their lives.

We believe that decision-making in the UK needs to be more:

- Open – so that people can understand, influence and hold decision-makers to account for the actions and inactions of their governments;
- Participatory – so that people have the freedom, support and opportunity to shape their communities and influence the decisions that affect their lives; and,
- Deliberative – so that people can exchange and acknowledge different perspectives, understand conflict and find common ground, and build a shared vision for society.

We were founded in 2003 to “create a new focus for thinking and action on the links between new forms of public participation and existing democratic institutions”. We've been promoting and practising participatory and deliberative decision-making ever since.

We have worked with governments, parliaments, civil society organisations, academics and the public across the UK and internationally to put people at the heart of decision-making.

Involve is a company limited by guarantee (05669443) and a registered charity in England and Wales (1130568), and Scotland (SC047314). See our Charity Commission listing: <http://apps.charitycommission.gov.uk/...>

We work across the UK and have offices in London, Edinburgh and Belfast.

03. WHAT WE DO

Our mission is to develop, support and campaign for new ways of involving people in the decisions that affect their lives.

We need to make important choices as a society, but our democracy isn't working as it should. Decision-makers are struggling to get things done. The public are frustrated the system isn't working for them. And everywhere people are feeling divided, distrustful and powerless. We demonstrate how things can be different.

Our work is focused in three areas:

- Advocacy and communications – Making the case for participation and deliberation as core and expected parts of democracy, and ensuring that people in positions of power and influence understand and support their use;
- Capacity building and standards – Building the capacity of public servants and practitioners, and developing the body of evidence, principles and standards that support good participatory and deliberative practice; and,
- Innovation and practice – Encouraging frequent use of participatory and deliberative processes, and ensuring continuous learning and innovation to improve democracy.

Our projects have included:

- Climate Assembly UK – the largest UK wide citizens' assembly to date, commissioned by the UK Parliament to give recommendations on reaching net-zero;
- Citizens' Assembly of Scotland – the first citizens' assembly in Scotland, commissioned by the Scottish Government to give recommendations on the future of Scotland;
- The Democracy Network – aims to build and strengthen the democracy sector in the UK, to support collaboration and build our collective power and influence.

Our values

- Collaboration – because change comes when broad coalitions of people work towards a common vision;
- Equality – because everyone in society has an equal right to be listened to and participate in decisions that affect their lives. No one should be held back by societal divisions or prejudice;
- Independence – because we are committed to the integrity and impartiality of participatory and deliberative processes;
- Purpose – because participation must have an impact. We reject tokenistic or ineffectual engagement; and,
- Quality – because effective participation requires time, attention and commitment.
